Behavior Guidelines and Expectations

We strive to create a positive learning environment for all campers. Our expectations for behavior are simple: be safe, be respectful, be responsible. Please review this policy with your child.

1. When there is an infraction of rules, we issue warnings and encourage participants to continue playing when the behavior is corrected.
2. If the disruptive behavior continues after one warning, the participant is given a second warning then can resume play, if the behavior is corrected.
3. If disruptive behavior continues after two warnings (or refusal to listen), a staff member contacts parents to inform them of behavior that is not meeting expectations.
4. The participant may be suspended for the following program day.

For more serious incidents, we may need to move through these steps more quickly than outlined above.

Medical Information

Please notify education staff of any health or behavioral information that may impact their camp experience so we can make appropriate accommodations.

If medication of any type (over the counter or prescription) is required, it must be stored with and administered by UNSM Education staff. Campers are not allowed to carry any medications with them. Medication must be in its original container. Medical information is requested in our waivers and supplemental information documents to be read and signed by the parent/guardian before the start of camp.

Illness, Accidents & Emergencies

If your child becomes sick during camp, you will be notified and asked to pick them up early. If your child is ill before camp, we ask that you keep them at home for the health and safety of other campers and museum staff. This includes contagious illnesses such as having a temperature higher than 100°, vomiting, diarrhea, or other bodily discharge. If a bathroom accident occurs, parents will be asked to take their camper home. Campers may return to day camp programming when they can participate in daily activities and are symptom free without medication for at least 24 hours. Please note that we have additional COVID-19 precautions detailed in the next section.

In the event of an emergency or accident involving your child, you will be notified by staff, following notification to the appropriate emergency personnel. All museum education staff are certified in Adult & Pediatric First Aid/CPR/AED and have been trained in emergency procedures for the museum.
